She will spend the next 3 years in the states and after that could be anywhere in the world. Order is a missionary one, very cloistered and the sisters beg for food as the elderly and poor do that they work with. Marions Mother says that this is what she has been looking for and is very happy.

Greetings to the Class of 1956

The warmest good wishes to one of my favorite classes. I would love to be with you and hear first hand what the last 35 years have brought you, but I promised the Class of 1941, that if I were able, I would attend their 50th reunion on the same night. I would love to see those pictures of your dear grandchildren, to hear where you are living and what you are doing, and what plans you have for the next 35 years.

As for me, I have a very happy retirement in my dear Hadley with my nieces and nephew who spoil me and friends that I have known all my life.

Do come and see me. I live in the center of Town in the gray house next to First Church. If you ever go to the Hampshire Mall, Route 9 takes you right through the center of the Town.

Thank you for those happy years you gave me in Agawam.

With all good wishes for your future happiness.

Dear Members of the Class of 56

I was so pleased to receive an invitation to your reunion. I should surely be happy to be with you.

I injured my left leg some time ago and still have to wear a miserable cast which keeps me pretty well confined.

I may not actually be with you, but shall spend the evening reviewing many happy times together.

Please say hello to everyone. I'd love to see any of the program material you have prepared.

I hear frequently from Miss Miller, Miss Moggio and Jane Durkan.

Each name on the committee was familiar and I'm so glad you listed both married and single names.

Have a wonderful evening.

Affectionately,

Thank you for inviting me to your reunion. It is nice to be remembered after 35 years and I have many happy memories of your class.

Much as I hate to admit it, I think that my reunion days are over. It is difficult for me to go out in a large group. I get very tired and it does not seem wise to attempt it.

I am still living alone in my own apartment. My life is very quiet but pleasant and I enjoy seeing old friends. If you are down my way I shall love to have you stop in.

Have a wonderful time at your reunion. I shall be thinking of you.

Sincerely,

(signed) Marjorie Ward
